 13:00 - open end

 Graz, BNN Office

When: 23 October 2023, starting at 13:00h, open end

Where: Graz (Austria) - BNN Office

Participants (planned): On-site: Denis Koltsov, BNN, BRAVE
Online: BNN, PDWA, TUS, TEMASOL

Description:

BNN is organising a Standardisation Workshop for the EU-funded project NanoPAT and its technology developers to get an overview of the meaning of standardisation, how it can be used and how NanoPAT and its partners can standardise their technologies.

The aim of the workshop is to hear an overall introduction to standardisation by Dr. Denis Koltsov (Director of BREC Solutions, Limited) and to present NanoPAT technologies. A joint discussion about the impact of a standardised technology / service will be held between Dr. Koltsov and NanoPAT technology developers.

Dr. Denis Koltsov is founder and owner of the nanotechnology consulting practice BREC Solutions, Ltd., which focuses on technical, regulatory and standardisation issues in nanotechnology innovation. He is the owner of several patents and author of numerous publications, as well as a recognised authority in nanotechnology standardisation, innovation and current market, regulatory and policy trends. Dr. Koltsov is an expert representing industry on BSI, ISO, IEC and CEN expert committees. Dr. Koltsov has developed and published a number of international nanotechnology standards and currently holds the chairman position for the ISO TC229 (Nanotechnologies).
